ABOUT US

Share who you are, why you started the brand, your vision and mission, and how you plan to grow. Treat your About page like your store's résumé, and make sure it's updated at all times. The more you share about yourself, the closer your customers will feel to your brand.

Instead of going to a physical store, you visit an online store's website or app. You browse items, add them to a virtual shopping cart, and complete your purchase by paying online. The items you buy are then delivered to your home.

Your About Us page should be more than a corporate resume. It should describe who you are. Write about your values and principles. Explain why the product or service you offer is important to you.
